AUCKLAND ARTS FESTIVAL PERFORMANCE

Tuesday 30th March 2021

Tēnā koutou e ngā Mātua,

We have been invited to attend and perform at this years Auckland Arts festival held in the Kiri Te Kanawa theatre, Aotea Square on Sunday 11th April. It is the 10th celebration of the Sistema Music School hosted by Auckland Philharmonia Orchestra and with pleasure we have been asked to sing a song composed by Rob Ruha especially for this event. We will be a part of a 1 hour performance from a range of other performances and performance is from 4pm-5pm.

Students are expected to wear tidy dress this includes black pants/shorts and Kura jacket. We will perform in full Kapa Haka Attire so ensure your child is prepared. Please ensure they bring something to snack on or some money to purchase kai on the evening.

To avoid travel costs, we are asking that all students find their own transport to Aotea Square and all proceeds of this performance will go towards the end of year ball. Can you indicate below on the permission slip if you can help with transport, this would be much appreciated.

You can purchase tickets if you wish to attend and support your child. Please use the link:
